Course Overview

Course number: OMPM-4571
Course length: 2 days

This course provides a full understanding of:

- Purpose and reasons for the use of Experion Application Framework (EAF)
- Services and Components which are part of Workcenter
- Data management used by Workcenter
- Workcenter Security model
- Administration and Configuration of Workcenter
- Design and building of schematics and displays
- Diagnostics

Course Delivery Options

- In-Center Instructor-Led Training
- On-Site Instructor-Led Training

Who Should Take this Course

- BizTalk / XML Service Administrator or Developer

Prerequisite/Skill Requirements

Prerequisite Course(s)

- Recommended: Completion of 5749 course

Desirable Skills and/or Experience

- Knowledge of HTML web page concepts and URL links
- Knowledge of Unifomrance and PHD, and ability to create TAG PHD
- Knowledge of Virtual Tags and TAG types
- Basic understanding of Windows Services concepts

Course Topics

The following topics are covered:

- HMI Display Builder
- Design and build schematics
- Working with shapes creating shapes
- Working with time control & behaviours
- Working with alphanumerics
- Data linking to shapes and alphanumeric
- Proofing pages and testing data links
- Developing trends
- Creating and using tables
- Creating manual input pages
- PHD and manual input pages
- Diagnostics and troubleshooting

Additional Information

To increase your knowledge and skills, there are additional courses available from Automation College.

For more information and registration, visit www.automationcollege.com.