Production Control Center: Fundamentals - PCC Implementation

Course Overview

Course number: PCC-010
Course length: 2 days

This course covers the following topics:
- How the applications work from an end-user perspective
- Advantage of the PCC applications to increase production, reduce downtime of the process, simplify working routines for reporting, etc.

Course Delivery Options

- In-Center Instructor-Led Training
- On-Site Instructor-Led Training

Who Should Take This Course?

- PCC End Users

Prerequisite/Skill Requirements

Prerequisite Course(s)
- None

Desirable Skills and/or Experience

- Working knowledge of Windows Operating systems
- Working experience with Microsoft Excel

Course Topics

The following topics are covered
- Get started with PCC
- Basic functionality such as Trend and TAG Explorer
- The advantage of the different PCC applications
- Use of the different PCC applications effectively
- Only the PCC applications that are relevant for the participants are included in the course

Additional Information

To increase your knowledge and skills, there are additional courses available from Automation College.

For more information and registration, visit www.automationcollege.com.