

Printa Operator

Course Overview

Course number: PRI01R600

Course length: 1 day

This course provides the ability to use the Printa user interface for controlling the printing process.

Course Delivery Options

- In-Center Instructor-Led Training.
- On-Site Instructor-Led Training.

Who Should Take This Course?

- Pressmen.
- Production Planners.
- Maintenance Personnel.

Prerequisite/Skill Requirements

Prerequisite Course(s)

- None.

Course Topics

The following topics are covered:

- Introduction of the Printa system.
- Displays and pictures used in controlling printing process.
- Keyboard functions of the user interface.
- Alarm and history information.

Additional Training

To increase your knowledge and skills, there are additional courses available from Automation College.

For viewing the schedule, please visit www.honeywell.com/tms or contact fihs.training@honeywell.com.