

Printa Applications

Course Overview

Course number: PRI20R600

Course length: 2 days

This course provides the knowledge of Printa application definitions focused on routines of maintenance operations.

Course Delivery Options

- In-Center Instructor-Led Training.
- On-Site Instructor-Led Training.

Who Should Take This Course?

- Maintenance Personnel.

Prerequisite/Skill Requirements

Prerequisite Course(s)

- Completion of PRI01R600 Course.

Course Topics

The following topics are covered:

- Application planning tools, i.e. builders of the Design Module.
- Structure and hierarchy of a Printa application.
- Making changes and additions to the Printa application.
- Application documentation.

Additional Training

To increase your knowledge and skills, there are additional courses available from Automation College.

For viewing the schedule, please visit www.honeywell.com/tms or contact fihps.training@honeywell.com.