

Experion MX: Fundamentals – Maintenance Overview

Course Overview

Course number: EMX-0011-AT

Course length: 2 days (self-paced with 10 days to complete)

The course presents you with information about the Experion MX Quality Control System that may be used in support of operation and maintenance roles.

Course Benefits

You will acquire the necessary knowledge to:

- Be familiar with the hardware layout for an Experion MX Quality Control System
- Setup and operate standard Experion MX displays
- Be familiar with the Experion MX Scanner support displays
- Be familiar with the sensors in an Experion MX Quality Control System

Course Delivery Options

- Asynchronous Training (AT)
- IMPORTANT – Prior to registration, you must review/perform any required check(s) by visiting this link: E-Learning Access Requirements

Who Should Take This Course?

Field service and customer personnel who will be responsible for setting up or maintaining the Experion MX Quality Control System.

Prerequisite/Skill Requirements

Prerequisite Course

- None

Required Skills and/or Experience

- None

Desirable Skills and/or Experience

- None

Course Topics

You will learn about...

- Experion MX architecture
- Display overview
- Display navigation and setup
- Scanner maintenance overview
- Sensor overview

You will learn how to....

- Setup and operate the Alarm Summary display on an Experion MX system
- Setup and operate the Analysis displays on an Experion MX system
- Setup and operate the Process Information displays on an Experion MX system
- Setup the Management Information Summary report displays on an Experion MX system
- Maintain the software of an Experion MX server
- Manage the recipe/code database of an Experion MX system

Additional Training

To increase your knowledge and skills, there are additional courses available from Automation College.

For more information and registration, visit www.honeywellprocess.com/en-US/training.